Old Dungeons and New Prisons; A New Kind of Dog; Fair Ladies

WHITTINGTON BORDER FORTRESS, near the Anglo-Welsh border, now part of the late Sir Travers Lloyd's property. It dates from Saxon times. It may be compared with a modern prison.

LADY WILLINGTON: An exclusive photograph taken by special permission previous to the departure of the new governor-general to Canada. Lady Willington has her pet dog with her.

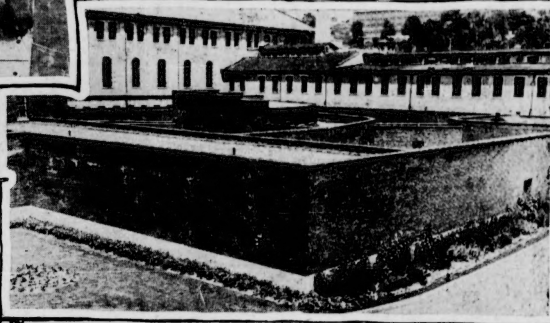

MRS. CLEVELAND-DELL, daughter of former President Cleveland and his young wife, now married to Thomas Preston, Jr. Mrs. Dell is now Mrs. Amen, and she has one child, Frances Folsom Dell.

GLASS, DON'T BREAK IT

DOBERMAN PINCHERS: Pups at nine weeks old. These dogs are rare in Canada and come from Germany. They are owned by J. K. Kennedy, Kingston road, Toronto. The righthand pup shows a Dachshund strain in his legs.

SING SING PRISON is being added to and rebuilt in part. This huge penitentiary can only be viewed in detail. The building shown is reserved for condemned men under the capital sentence.

RIGHT: AFTER THE DEFEAT of the Australian cricketers was announced the kangaroo was discovered in this posture at the zoo, apparently inconsolable.

Mrs. Paine's "Holywell Bear," a fine Labrador retriever, whose grandchild is His Majesty's "Wollerton Dan." "Bear" is to make a sporting tour of Canada.

THE FASHION novelty of the year that all women are talking about are the knee breeches designed by Philippe and Gaston, the Paris couturiers. The knee breeches shown are of satin and are worn with a short satin or velvet coat.

MISS RUTH PATTERSON, chosen to represent New York at the beauty carnival at Atlantic City, greeted her rivals and Mayor Walker at the city hall, and the mayor welcomed all the girls to the city. They stayed in New York for a few days before going to Atlantic City. Fifteen of the beauties are in the picture, and it may be admitted that they are not bad looking girls.

R. T. H. N. WINSTON CHURCHILL, leaving Downing street where, in the absence of Mr. Baldwin, he has been acting prime minister.

THE CASE

CHAPTER XLV
The three men looked at each other as if they were almost on the same level. A few more minutes passed and the three men looked at each other as if they were almost on the same level.

"I'll go to the locker room," said Perry. "You can wait for me here. I'll give you my word of honor, I will come straight back here to you within five minutes."

"Something in his voice made the three men feel that he was not lying. A moment later, Sam Anderson came from the locker room.

"What do you suppose is in there?" he whispered, looking greatly excited. "Perry Heath?"

"Yes, we know it," said Tod. "Heath don't tell everybody. Though you had a party on."

"I don't know how I knew, I just started on it as I was looking about."

"Truitt then told her the whole story of the strange of the night before, and gave her permission to tell Mrs. Trevis about it all, when opportunity should arise. For their mutual interest could never leave her interest in the case."

"You go along home, Mr. Anderson," said Truitt. "And please don't say anything about this to any one. We're looking after him all right."

"Very well, I've no desire to mix in, but I think you had better not see your detective, Al Cunningham."

"He's off and the others waited for him."

BLATCHFORD IS PROUDEST MAN ON CONTINENT

Mayor Gives Bulletin Credit As Factor In Liberal Triumph

"The proudest man on the North American continent! That's how Mayor K. A. Blatchford described himself Tuesday night when it was certain that he would be elected and even Conservative headquarters had conceded the victory.

"The people of Edmonton honored me with the highest gift in the hands of the citizens of any city when they made me mayor, and at that time I stated I was the proudest man in Canada. Today they have still further honored me and I find it hard to choose words that convey my full appreciation of this victory. I tried to serve the citizens to the best of my ability while at the City Hall, and I can only say that I will continue to do the same thing while at Ottawa," he said.

"I appreciate also the support I received in the rural belts. It not only shows that the farmers of Alberta are not ungrateful of the fight I have made for reduced freight rates, the Western route, the agricultural, the grain elevator and other things which I believed to be for the benefit of Edmonton and Alberta.

"Last but not least I want to thank the Edmonton Bulletin for its support. It has been a great help to me in this campaign in having the support of a newspaper, and especially for myself, and for all Liberal candidates. I want to go on record as saying that the Bulletin deserves a large share of the credit for the victory in the two Edmonton seats."

Mayor Grateful
Hon. Charles Stewart also spoke warmly of the support he had received in past campaigns but had been without newspaper assistance on occasion, and found how hard the going was. This was particularly true of the campaign in 1925, when he had been opposed by the only paper in the city at that time.

"Nobody knows better than I do the value of a newspaper in a campaign, and no one appreciates more than I do the very definite stand taken by the Bulletin and its co-operation in the last few days of the campaign. I was a great help to me in the Liberal cause and materially assisted in the capture of the two Edmonton seats."

Mr. Stewart also expressed the conviction that a fine election day would have been still greater, notwithstanding the many Liberal victories.

Results Expected
"On the whole, the results all over Canada have been what I expected," he said. "The best part of the victory for my side is that the people of Canada carried the day. I have spoken in no uncertain manner against the high-handed actions of the government, and I am glad to say that the Marquand King Government did not have a single cabinet minister defeated, and that Mr. King will go to Ottawa with that majority which will enable him to carry on the government of Canada along the lines laid down by him during the campaign. It is a notable victory and means much for Western Canada."

Mr. Stewart also thanked his supporters and workers, many of whom remained at their posts at various points all day without relief in order to assist him.

It was a people's victory all over Canada, and it is to the people of Western Canada that he will give thanks for their support," he said. "The Mayor and Mr. Stewart both at Fortnight Theatre, where spoke at Fortnight Theatre, where they were elected."

First Mother to Swim Channel

Mrs. Kensington Cusson (Miss Cusson) snuggled up her son on the sands of the ocean after her first swim in the English Channel. Top picture shows a view of the crowd greeting her as she returns to shore. She is seen as a spot in the water just ahead of the row boat.

Galas to be Held to Raise Cash for Provincial Championships

All Edmonton swimming interests were represented at an organization meeting of the Edmonton Swimming Association held at Landry & Boyce office, Tuxedo building, Monday night.

The following officers were elected: Hon. President—His Worship Mayor Blatchford; Hon. Vice President—City Commissioner David Mitchell; Dr. P. F. McPherson; President John Ryle; Vice-Pres. Miss Kathleen Jones; Secretary Donald MacFarlane; Treasurer T. Meigs.

It was decided that next year a determined effort would be made to raise money by means of swimming galas and if necessary by levies on the individual swimming clubs in order to be able to send Edmonton swimmers to the provincial meet while by means of inter-city meets it is hoped to promote a wide interest in the sport.

The final report of the Northern Alberta Swimming Championships was received disclosing a surplus.

It was decided that the association would affiliate with the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada.

Metal stop signs to stand on the curb will cost about $10 each, according to a report received by the city council and to be submitted tonight by Chief of Police A. G. Blaine.

LOCAL TORIES REFUSE TO BE DOWNHEARTED

Congratulate Victors And Keep Powder Dry For Next Engagement

Conservative candidates in Edmonton, while disappointed in the results all over Canada generally and in their own riding in particular, were not discouraged.

A. U. G. Bury, who congratulated Mayor Blatchford when it was apparent that he would carry the day, looked with satisfaction on the small majority his opponent had received, and was warm in his praise of the Conservative workers who had fought a strenuous campaign on his behalf.

Mr. Bury regretted the change which had taken place all over Canada, but felt that the Conservatives should take courage in the assurance that the defeat of today would be the victory of tomorrow.

Col. E. C. Jamieson also advocated keeping the powder dry for future engagements. He declared that he had no complaint to make as to the manner in which the campaign had been conducted, and thanked all workers and supporters.

Congratulate Stewart
Col. Jamieson also congratulated Hon. Charles Stewart on his victory, but his support to keep the Conservative organization intact for the future.

"We should prepare now for the next fight. Although we have got down, we can be proud of our defeat," he said. "As the Conservative party still stands, as it always did and always will, for a United Canada, and there is no doubt whatever that our party will play a large part in Canada's future."

All candidates expressed satisfaction that the campaign to East and West Edmonton were not marked by the bitterness and the personalities that were apparent in other parts of the Dominion, and great credit given by them to their campaign managers for the manner in which the fight had been conducted.

"It was a strenuous battle but clean one, and there was no underhanding," said Hon. Charles Stewart.

Managers Praised
Mayor Blatchford expressed similar appreciation, both of the work of the campaign managers and of the work of Mr. Bury, who had fought cleanly and fairly, although hard hit by the order of the day.

Col. McFarlane, campaign manager for Col. Jamieson, came in for praise from the West End Liberal organization for his very fair and clean fighting.

"We knew we were in a tight place, but we were not downhearted," Col. McFarlane was a strenuous campaign manager, there was never any time any complaint to make regarding the tactics," was the way in which one of Hon. Charles Stewart's chief lieutenants said the battle was fought.

STEVEN'S HAPPY THOUGH LONELY

Canadian Press

VANCOUVER, Sept. 15.—Following his election here last night, Hon. H. H. Stevens, minister of defence, said:

"The splendid majority returned by the Vancouver electorate for myself and fellow candidates is a vindication of my records and services of the last five years as premier of British Columbia. It is a tribute to the spirit of the extremely bitter campaign which we have conducted. The prime of the election of the day was conducted not so much by Mr. Liberal opponents as by the Vancouver electorate."

MADRID, Spain, Sept. 15.—The commander of the artillery academy at Segovia was sentenced to death by court martial Tuesday for his participation in the recent revolt of the artillery corps. King Alfonso, however, on the advice of Francisco Primo de Rivera, and using the royal prerogative, has commuted the sentence of death to a term of imprisonment. The news of the action of the king has evoked much praise.

Conservatives LOSE 7 SEATS IN MANITOBA

J. S. Woodsworth, Labor, Winnipeg, Polls Highest Majority

WINNIPEG, Sept. 15.—Additional returns from Tuesday's polling in the federal elections in Manitoba, were slow in coming this morning, but those that have been received have shown that the Conservatives were without a seat in any of the constituencies, as compared with their representation of seven in the last house.

Practically all of the successful candidates were returned with majorities well over the 10,000 mark. One exception is in Portage La Prairie where Hugh H. Arthur Meighen was defeated. The successful candidate, E. A. McPherson, K.C., Liberal, with several polls to spare, had a majority of 55 this morning.

Torke Returned
In Brandon constituency, Robert Torke, was returned with a majority of 1,177. J. R. Woodsworth, the successful Labor nominee in Winnipeg North Centre, had the highest majority, with 2,515 over J. A. Hanfield, Conservative.

The various parties will be represented as follows, in the next parliament:

Liberals 4, Progressives 4, Liberal-Progressive 1, Labor 1, Total 17.

One Labor candidate, Allan Melnik, R. Boniface, lost his deposit, being defeated by H. H. Woodsworth, Liberal, in a three-cornered contest. Joseph Bernier, Conservative, was the other unsuccessful candidate.

MAYOR GOES DUCK HUNTING

Mayor K. A. Blatchford, M.P., is the original early bird. On election day he was the first voter to greet poll officials in his own home poll, and following the counting of the ballots last night, after speaking at about a dozen different meetings of supporters who were celebrating the victory, His Worship changed into waders, put the shotgun in the car, and without further delay, even base map, started off duck shooting.

"Well get through all right," he assured those who saw him start when doubt was expressed as to the conditions of the road and the probability of being "stalled." "I made an early start yesterday and made the grade, and we're making an early start now and we'll do the same thing."

VOTERS BRAVE BAD WEATHER IN CAMROSE

More Ballots Cast Than In Last Dominion Election

CAMROSE, Sept. 14.—In spite of the sudden advent of winter

weather, voters in Camrose cast more ballots than in the last Dominion election.

It appeared that little active interest was being taken in politics. The last three or four days brought to the surface

considerable activity on the part of the supporters of the two candidates, W. T. Loefer, C. P. A. and the U. R. M.

For the last time, the voters of the town were called upon to elect their representatives to the town council.

Throughout the cold, windy

weather, the voters were steadfast in their purpose to vote. Approximately 100 per cent of the total

possible vote was cast.

At the October sessions of the town council, the town council will hold its annual convention
